SUCCESSFUL TEXSTRA PROJECT REACHES ITS ENDING IN PORTUGAL

UMINHO hosts the TEXSTRA team in Portugal for its last project meeting

The fifth meeting of TEXSTRA – Textile Strategy for Innovative Higher Education project was held on Wednesday, May 20th, in Portugal and it was organized by University of Minho (UMINHO). The main goal was to review the progress made since the project start and plan for the last steps of the project.

The main features were the presentation of the final outcomes of the TEXSTRA project and the progress towards the different translations required to complete the project.

The consortium celebrated the successful implementation of TEXSTRA.

PUBLICATION OF TEXSTRA HANDBOOK OF GOOD PRACTICES

The TEXSTRA team is finalizing the imminent publication of the Project handbook of good practices & open challenges: training tools and methodologies to foster creativity and innovation within the textile and clothing manufacturing sector. The partners will provide it translated in all project languages in the coming weeks, its availability will be announced in the project website.

TEXSTRA RELEASES THE BOOK OF LECTURES

The TEXSTRA team is pleased to announce the publication the book of lectures titled: “Innovative and Creative thinking in the Textile & Clothing manufacturing sector”. It contains five thematic blocks of resources in: advanced textile products, advanced processing, circular economy and sustainability in the textile sector, marketing for textile and a business block for textile innovation. Translations are in process and will be available shortly in the project website

TEXSTRA LAUNCHES THE FIRST VIRTUAL INTERNSHIPS IN THE PLATFORM

Virtual internships are organized on the online platform for transferring research and innovation through project based training, combined with a Virtual Project Competition.

A group of students enrolled in the virtual internship organized by TEXSTRA team will work on the preparation of business cases for each of the different challenges proposed by industrial partners.
